OPTIMISTIC ZADIG SEES NOTHING BUT BRIGHTNESS IN THE FUTURE

Herman Zadig arrived here Sunday and continued on to Goldfield as he wanted to spend an entire day in Tonopah looking after his various mining interests. Having satisfied himself of the conditions here the veteran operator left this morning for his home in San Francisco.

"I have just been to Virginia City," Mr. Zadig explained last night, "and, according to my idea the south drift on the 2700-foot level is just beginning to show quartz carrying the proper percentage of silver which is considered the way the regular Comstock ore should run. It is the opinion of those in charge of the Con. Virginia & California that this drift on the 2700 level reaches Con. Virginia ground where the west lode from its junction with the east lode is likely to develop a big ore body. This would be right under where the big bonanza ore body was taken out in 1873. I feel very optimistic about a revival of the Comstock lode."

Regarding Goldfield Mr. Zadig reports a better feeling over the announcement that Atlanta is going to sink a winze from the 1700 to the 2000 level which is taken as proof that the management feels confident of finding values at that depth. In Silver Pick there are two places in the workings at which ore may be found within the next two weeks.

The find in Cracker Jack is also very important as it opens an entirely new country west of the Columbia mountain fault. Speaking of Great Bend Mr. Zadig said the company earned $10,000 last month. "I visited North Star and Rescue-Eula this morning," Mr. Zadig continued, "and I am free to say that the North Star is opening new territory on the 1050 level which looks exceedingly promising. While the veins under development are small, still the character of the ore and the formation give promise for opening a large body of ore. In my opinion the North Star has the best chance of again yielding large returns from ore shipments. The annual meeting will be held next Monday and I don't see any signs of opposition.

"Rescue-Eula is looking very fine with ore on every claim. On the 1100 level of the Eula claim the ore body is opening up big. Really it is strange that with such a showing the stock should be selling around eighteen cents and it looks like it would take a solid mountain of ore to have any stock come back. The work that the Jim Butler has just started near the Maggie May claim seems to me of the greatest importance to Rescue because it shows that the drilling the Jim Butler did on the Ophir King, which adjoins the Maggie May claim, must have been of such favorable nature that the management decided to do work on that ground."

"I am glad to see Tonopah Extension getting ready to start to drift north toward the Sully group from their 1650 level in the Victor shaft. I don't know if the people of Tonopah realize the importance of this move. Should the north drift develop an ore body in the Sully group it would mean a great deal for the After All claims in which the Umatilla has an interest. Every body has asked me what makes Tonopah stocks so dull in spite of the rise in silver. My answer is that there has not been any new development in Tonopah of any great importance to cause a big advance in the last year or two. I forecast now, as I predicted before that the next great development will be in the western zone on the West Tonopah, Tonopah Extension and Great Western."

If nothing happens this will take place between now and the beginning of the new year. I did not go to Manhattan because I could not spare the time, besides there is nothing special to see. It does seem a pity that the different factions cannot adjust their differences. Better than both sides should give and take as I believe the stockholders would prefer a fair settlement to spending large sums of money for lawyers and experts. As a rule the end is a settlement anyway."

BALL PLAYERS SELECT BERTHS

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 7.—Once in a while the question arises as to how baseball managers decided who shall have the upper Pullman berth and who shall have the lower when the teams are on the road. Some ball players are particular where they sleep and most of them want lower.

Captain Bill Rodgers of the Portland Pacific Coast League club has explained that when the Portland team travels, the first man on the batting list gets berth number one, the second on the list berth number two and so on. For the pitcher who is to work the following day and for Manager Walter McCredie, there are saved two lower berths in the middle of the car. The utility men get the berths remaining after the regulars are accommodated.

BALL GAME BENEFIT FOR SWIMMING POOL

The boys of the east side of Main street and the boys of the west side of Main street are going to give an exhibition of talent a week from Sunday when they propose pulling off a game of baseball that will entertain everybody who wants to help out the swimming pool fund. Since there is no fence around the grounds there will not be any charge for admission but a strong arm committee will be present to invite the audience to buy a tag. The gross proceeds will go to the swimming fund. Details will appear when the captains succeed in polishing up their nines.

RELAY RACE IS NOW MOVING WEST

This morning at 7 o'clock the transcontinental relay race began at the White House, in Washington, D. C., and will continue day and night without rest until the packets containing official messages are delivered at San Francisco and Los Angeles. The first leg of the journey will be to Staunton, Va., covered by Mrs. Roe Fulkerson. From Denver west the route takes the courtesy through Idaho Springs, Glenwood Springs, Green River, Utah, Price, Utah, Salt Lake and Ely. From the latter point the packet will be taken by Reuben Kelly and Charles Ingalls who will drive through to Goldfield with a short intermission in Tonopah and thence the messages will be conveyed by C. G. Patrick and Ed. Redman to Bishop where the route divides. One packet will go on to San Francisco and the other will be sent to Los Angeles via Mojave. The object of the trip is to demonstrate the feasibility of transmitting documents of a character that cannot be conveyed by telegraph symbols in case of suspended mail communication or other great national emergency and to demonstrate the importance of a national highway direct from the national capital by the shortest route to the California national defense military highway. The packets should arrive in this section inside of a week so that by Sunday or Monday they will pass through Tonopah.

TEXAS BANK WAS ACCOMMODATING

GOV. FERGUSON ALLOWED TO OVERDRAW HIS ACCOUNT AT ALL TIMES

(By Associated Press.)

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 7.—The Temple State bank, of which Governor Ferguson formerly was president and in which he still owns $32,000 of stock, promised to play an important part in the present proceedings looking to the impeachment of the governor.

Henry Blum, assistant cashier in the bank, in testifying told how Governor Ferguson, as governor, the secretary of state and the banking commissioner deposited large sums of state money in the Temple institution. The testimony showed that at one time several hundred thousand dollars of state money were on deposit in what has sometimes been referred to as "the governor's bank."

When asked about the payment on August 23, 1916, of $5,600 from the account of Mr. Ferguson, as governor, Blum could remember nothing of it except that there had been an error discovered in the balances.

The governor is charged by indictment with embezzling $5,600 on August 23, 1916. It developed that Ferguson was overdrawn to the extent of $30,640.32 that date, August 23, 1916, when he had a balance of $40.32.

FOREST REVENUES ARE INCREASING

(By Associated Press.)

OGDEN, Utah, Aug. 7.—Over $512,000 was received from national forest resources and uses in the intermountain district for the fiscal year ended June 30. This exceeds by nearly $52,000 the receipts of last year, which also broke previous records, and is 29 per cent greater than the average for the first eight years following the establishment of the district as a distinct administrative unit.

More than four-fifths of the amount, over $431,000, was received from grazing. Sheep permits yielded more than $200,000 and cattle permits more than $231,000. The receipts from timber sales were $72,500, or about 5 1/2 per cent below the average. Over $6,200 was received from special uses of various kinds, an increase of about 24 per cent over 1916. The largest relative gain was in receipts from water power privileges, approximately $1,250, being a gain of about 140 per cent over the preceding year.

The "25 per cent" of this fund distributed by law for the benefit of local schools and roads will give the counties within which these national forests are situated a total of over $128,500, while an additional $51,200 will be available for the construction of roads by the forest service under the 10 per cent fund item provided for by the act of August 10, 1913.

BUTLER THEATER

Lou Tellegen, the distinguished romantic actor in "The Black Wolf," a thrilling Spanish photodrama from the story by Jean Barrymore, in "The Black Wolf" Mr. Tellegen is seen in a character entirely different from anything in which he has heretofore appeared, and in a role to which he is exactly suited.

"The Black Wolf" is a bandit with his hiding place in the Spanish mountains. He is a friend and benefactor to the poor but has a price placed on his head by the duke of a particular district in which he operates. The duke tries to win the hand of his chancellor's daughter, but she, chancing to meet the Black Wolf, falls in love with him.

The Black Wolf is captured and sentenced to death. By her promise to marry him, the daughter of the chancellor secures the duke's consent to pardon the Black Wolf, unconscious of the fact that if a pardon is granted he must become a slave to the duke. Also a Ford Educational Weekly. "The Barrier," the seven-reel photodrama of Rex Beach's famous novel by the same name. Tomorrow is the day for it to arrive in Tonopah and for one day only.
